

Black Book Names Allscripts Top HIE Vendor in User Satisfaction Survey

February 10, 2014

Allscripts dbMotion™ selected as best-in-class in Ambulatory Electronic Health Records (EHR) and Provider-Centric HIE categories

CHICAGO, Feb. 10, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- A survey conducted by research company Black Book Rankings has named Allscripts (NASDAQ: MDRX) dbMotion population health management software as the top healthcare information exchange solution for 2013 in the ambulatory and provider-centric segment.

Allscripts dbMotion population health management solution aggregates and harmonizes disparate data from diverse sources, allowing healthcare organizations to improve care and drive operational efficiencies. Allscripts dbMotion can help providers meet Meaningful Use 2 attestation and support their care transitions through standards-based information exchange and clinical workflow tools.

Allscripts dbMotion analytics also delivers important insightful information, such as information related to high-risk chronic diseases, which can enable physicians to identify target populations, measure performance and outcomes, analyze utilizations, manage risk and utilize the analysis within their workflow.

Organizations choosing Allscripts dbMotion include South Nassau Communities Hospital in Oceanside, N.Y.

"We chose Allscripts dbMotion to help us synthesize and analyze critical patient data," said John Mertz, Chief Information Officer, Vice President Information Services for South Nassau. "It is a powerful tool that helps South Nassau continue to deliver an exceptional level of care to the communities we serve."
