CHICAGO, March 27, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Allscripts (NASDAQ: MDRX) has been recognized by Frost & Sullivan with the 2019 Best Practices Award for its population health management solutions. According to the report, Allscripts has "pioneered the concept of an open yet connected platform architecture, fueled by a real-time application programming interface (API) that incorporates disparate medical evidence seamlessly across the care continuum."

Frost & Sullivan evaluated Allscripts in two main areas: Product Family Attributes and Business Impact. The analyst firm ranked Allscripts on criteria such as "Reliability & Quality," "Financial Performance," "Operational Efficiency," and other strategy-based indicators.

Allscripts has integrated 3,400 hospitals, 75,000 physician practices, and 16 million patients worldwide through its various connected health solutions under the Allscripts CareInMotion™ platform, which includes Allscripts dbMotion™, Allscripts® Care Director™, and FollowMyHealth®. The report states the company has demonstrated proven expertise in optimizing every element of a population health management program, including the following:

- EHR-integrated data analytics
- Cross-continuum care management
- Proactive patient engagement
- Comprehensive outcomes reporting

"A value-based healthcare industry needs to be supported by an overarching population health management platform that is vendor agnostic yet agile enough to deploy and easily configure to meet specific workflows," said Frost and Sullivan Industry Analyst, Koustav Chatterjee. "Allscripts has achieved each of these industry goals both sooner and better than most competitors have."

According to Frost & Sullivan, Allscripts has stayed focused on "progressive health IT solutions that address the wide-ranging business needs of integrated delivery networks, multi-specialty hospitals, ambulatory physician practices, community care facilities, life sciences firms, and insurance companies."

"Allscripts is honored to be named recipient of Frost & Sullivan's 2019 Best Practices Award for Population Health Management" said Paul Black, Allscripts Chief Executive Officer. "We believe this recognition is a reflection of our commitment to our clients to provide them with solutions that achieve better long-term clinical and financial performance."
