Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 1, 2009, Allscripts-Misys Healthcare Solutions, Inc. (“Allscripts” or the “Company”) sent a notice of redemption for all of its outstanding 3.50% Convertible Senior Debentures Due 2024 (the “Debentures”) at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Debentures, plus interest accrued and unpaid to, but excluding, August 5, 2009 (the redemption date). As a result of Allscripts’ election to call the Debentures for redemption, the holders of the Debentures became entitled to convert the Debentures into shares of Allscripts common stock. By the close of business on August 4, 2009, the holders of all of the outstanding Debentures had converted their Debentures into an aggregate of approximately 2,451,000 shares of Allscripts common stock. As a result of the conversion, no Debentures remain outstanding.

Allscripts issued a press release on August 7, 2009 announcing that on August 6, 2009 it became aware of a purported class action complaint filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. A description of the complaint is set forth in the press release furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report, such description is incorporated herein by reference thereto.

Allscripts Notified of Purported Class Action Lawsuit Company Will Vigorously Defend Stock Drop Allegations

CHICAGO – August 7, 2009 – Allscripts (NASDAQ: MDRX) today announced that it has been notified that a purported class action complaint had been filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois against the Company and certain of its executive officers. The complaint alleges that between May 8, 2007 and February 13, 2008 the Company failed to disclose certain facts about the Company’s business, and on that basis the complaint asserts violations of federal securities laws.

The Company stated that it believes the allegations made in the complaint are without merit and that it intends to vigorously defend against the complaint.
